Explore artful plant combinations with garden designer Nita-Jo Rountree

EVERETT, WA – Have you ever put a few plants together and been disappointed by the results? Don't despair — join us for our hybrid program “Perfect Plant Combos for Every Garden” to discover Nita-Jo’s rules of garden design on Sunday, May 22 at 2 p.m. Participate in person at the Main Library at 2702 Hoyt Ave, Everett, WA, or watch online at <https://www.crowdcast.io/e/plantcombos>.

Nita-Jo will help you learn how to easily combine plantings in borders and containers to get that picture-perfect look. Photos of acclaimed gardens will illustrate numerous outstanding examples to provide ideas and inspiration for your own perfect plant pairings with panache.

Nita-Jo Rountree, whose personal garden was featured in Pacific Northwest Magazine, is a frequent speaker at the Northwest Garden Show and numerous gardening clubs and organizations. She is on the Board of Directors of the Bellevue Botanical Garden Society, on the Advisory Board of the Northwest Horticultural Society, and is a member of Great Garden Speakers and Garden Writers Association.
