Purr-plexing behavior: Decode the mysteries of cats with feline behaviorist Stephen Quandt

EVERETT, WA – Not seeing eye to eye with your feline friends? Join us for a free online program with cat expert Stephen Quandt on Saturday, September 24, 2022, at 10 a.m. Sign up here: epls.org/signmeup.

Most recently the feline behavior coordinator for one of the largest animal shelters in the U.S., Quandt now spends his time as an animal behavior consultant for hospitals and pet owners. Call it couples counseling for cats and their humans.

Quandt’s presentation, “Decoding the Mysteries of Cats,” is an educational service for cat owners. After all, who can you talk to when your cat is acting strange, sullen or downright surly? People experiencing cat behavior challenges often have few places to turn, and this program is your chance to ask a professional behaviorist all your pressing cat questions.

A former presentation host says, “[Quandt] has an incredible depth of knowledge on cat behavior and worked with each of the participants to come up with solutions that took into consideration their unique situations. His enthusiasm and passion for keeping cats happy, and for helping their humans understand them, really came through during our time with him.”

Stephen has given hundreds of behavior consults. He believes strongly in a compassionate, collaborative and educational approach to cat behavior, and he is Fear Free certified.

Please sign up for the program at epls.org/signmeup. All participants will be emailed the Zoom link a few days before the event. The program will not be recorded. This program is free and open to the public. Call 425-257-8000 or visit www.epls.org/events for more information about this or other library programs.

The Everett Public Library was founded in 1894 by the Everett Woman's Book Club. The historic Main Library was built in 1934 by architect Carl Gould, and the Evergreen Branch opened in 1985. The library’s two branches serve the residents of the City of Everett and nearby locales, circulating over 400,000 items per year and hosting hundreds of programs for children and adults. We connect the community to resources and services that inform, educate, and entertain. For more information about the Everett Public Library, visit www.epls.org.
