EARLY YEARS, con't

PLAY & LEARN

Mon. Nov 13, 20, 27 & Thur. Nov 9 | Main

Tues, Nov 7, 14, 21, 28 | Evergreen Branch

10:30 am to Noon

Parents and caregivers engage in play-based learning with their children, to enhance brain development and help young children become school-ready. For ages 0-5.

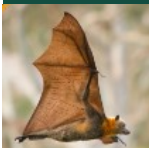

LITTLE SCIENCE LAB: RAINY WEATHER

Tues. Nov 21 @ 2 pm | Evergreen

This Little Science Lab is all about exploring rain: where it comes from, what it is, and where water goes after it rains. Children will learn how clouds make rain, how clothing can keep us dry from rain, and how puddles are formed. Ages 3-5.

SCHOOL AGED & TEENS

BATS OVERHEAD

Thurs. Nov 2 @ 4 pm | Main Library

Look up at dusk, and you're likely to see a bat flying across the sky. Believe it or not, bats are common in Washington and it's easy to spy them foraging for bugs after the sun sets. Join Bats Northwest as we explore and learn about bats through stories and crafts. For ages 5 to 10 years old.

SCHOOL AGED & TEENS

BUILD IT: WIND TUNNEL ENGINEERING

Thurs. Nov 16 @ 3:30 pm | Evergreen

Attempt to balance forces by engineering and testing flying craft in a vertical wind tunnel in this workshop lead by staff from the Imagine Children's Museum. For youth in grades 1 through 5. Register @ epls.org/signmeup.

NANOWRIMO: COME WRITE IN

Sat. Nov 4, 18, 25

Tabby's Coffee | Main Library

11 am — 4 pm

Participating in National Novel Writing Month? Come write at the library! Join us for an hour — or five. Bring your laptop, pen and paper, water, headphones, snacks, and whatever else you need to get your word count in. For anyone who wants to write.

(ESCAPE TO)

THE ZOMBIE PROM

Tues. Nov 7 | Main Library

Tues. Nov 14 | Evergreen

3:30—5:30 pm

A puzzle-room event for grades 4-12. Costumes encouraged. Optional registration: epls.org/signmeup.
